

Figure 6.1: Open-Ended Questions and Phrases That Support Maker Learning

- You have a great start! What is your next step?
- Tell me more about your plan.
- That adjustment really improved your design.
- Test that, and let me know what happens.
- This work really connects with . . .
- Walk me through your creative process.
- Your solution is really creative. Where did you get your inspiration from?
- Your mistake turned into a really great . . .
- That was challenging, but you stuck with it!
- Tell me how that piece fits.
- This example really extends the story.
- Your design shows me . . .
- Think about what materials might work for your project.